Claim 37 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claim, in setting forth the "first" and "second" edges, not only lacks antecedent basis, but as a whole, is confusing and unclear.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 32-35 and 37, as far as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wais.

Figures 1-3 show structure as claimed.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 36 and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wais in view of Rinaldi.

Regarding claim 36, Rinaldi shows a chair with a C-shaped base, and to have used such a chair with the desk of Wais, would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art. Simply placing the seat support of the chair onto the desk surface of Wais would have been a common sense way to stack the two items together, so as to save space, and would have been well within the level of skill in the art.

In regards to claim 38, the stacking of the desks of Wais, as shown in figure 1, would have encompassed the method steps as set forth.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Kipp, Schier, Cartwright, Jacques, Koett, Smith, Liang et al show various features of the invention.
